

The Friends of the Mary Jacobs Library is a volunteer organization with annual dues dedicated to providing all manner of support to the library and its programs. The Friends welcomes new people to the library community, it recruits volunteers to help in its operation, and it functions as a library advocate to local officials. The Friends raises funds for the library's expenses, to add to its endowment and to finance special projects and gifts.

Join the Friends of the Mary Jacobs Library by filling out a membership envelope at the Library. Join and become a Friend, and with your contribution, become involved in making and keeping Mary Jacobs Library the wonderful place that it is.
